25X1 [redacted] Comment: Ministerialblatt Nr. 1 lists Luisenstrasse 46 as the address of the Ministry of the Interior.)

a. It is extraordinarily harmful to the bloc policy of the DDR for the chairman of the CDU, a deputy minister president of the DDR, to mention the possibility that Parliament is to debate the police budget and police problems in the future. This is contradictory to the agreement of the bloc parties that police problems are to be handled exclusively and secretly by the executive branch out of regard for the requirements of German-Soviet cooperation.

b. It creates disturbances for the question of concentration camps - an essential element of western propaganda - to be raised and discussed openly at a Russian Zone party convention.

c. In the interest of the DDR the advocates of such western ideas must be taught better in some suitable way. They must not be allowed to leave the Russian Zone and they must be forced to adhere to the party line to which their party chairman had committed themselves when they entered the government.
